Title: ALEXANDER UHLIG
IMPACT ARTS - VICTIM
COMPUTER INTRUSION

Synopsis: To Open case and subfiles.

Details: On April 2, 2010, Special Agents (SA) [redacted]
and [redacted] met in person with [redacted]
[redacted] Impact Academy of Arts & Technology, 2560 Darwin Street, Hayward, California. Also present during the interview were [redacted] Technology [redacted]
[redacted] and [redacted] Envision Schools. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the investigation [redacted] provided the following information:

b7C

Agents communicated that during a separate Federal investigation, a search warrant had been executed and a computer seized. During the initial review of the seized computer, there were what looked to be documents containing personal information that pertained to the Impact Academy of Arts & Technology.
[redacted] was shown samples of the documents. [redacted] verified that some of the documents were from Impact Academy, although not all,
and looked to range from 2009 to the present.

b6
b7C

[redacted] and other administrators present at the time of the interview said the data contained student information or pictures, including items such as grades, that were private.

Some of the documents identified looked to have come from [REDACTED] computer as well.

[REDACTED] was asked if the school had run into problems in the past with any students. [REDACTED] provided the names of [REDACTED] and ALEX UHLIG. He said all three were friends and had been at the school since at least 2009. [REDACTED] described UHLIG as being anti-establishment and had passed out anarchist and satanic materials in the past. [REDACTED]

b6

[REDACTED] verified some pictures were kids from the school and some pictures were stored on an accessible server, available for many groups such as the student paper. It would not have been uncommon for students to attain files from that location.

[REDACTED] agreed to provide agents whatever information was necessary, such as student records, log files, etc.

SA [REDACTED] requests that captioned investigation be opened and assigned to SA [REDACTED] as case agent.
